FEBRUARY 2006

This unusual blend integrates all its components in a spicy scent of the South African veld. The fruit flavors are orange and kumquat, toned and brightened by acidity.

Consider it carefully, and you might imagine the taste of each variety in the blend:

- Wheat scents of Semillon (52%)
- Chamomile of Chardonnay (22%)
- Spice/acidity of Sauvignon (19%)
- Florality of Muscat (7%)

They create a harmonious blend, one that will likely grow more complex over the next several years.
