

Ken Forrester 2010 Reserve Chenin Blanc Takes #65 in Wine Enthusiast's "Top 100 Best Buys 2011"

October 6, 2011 - Ken Forrester's 2010 Reserve Chenin Blanc was granted the 65th "Best Buy of 2011" in Wine Enthusiast's annual 'Top 100' list. The 2010 Reserve Chenin Blanc received 90 points by Assistant Tasting Director Lauren Buzzeo, who described the bottling as, "a strong toasty streak lines the essence of this beautiful Chenin Blanc, adding character to the apple and pear fruit core. The mouthfeel is full and rich without being overdone thanks to the balanced acidity, while nuances of sweet spice, pie crust and wood-grilled Red Delicious all linger well into the long finish."

The 2010 Reserve Chenin Blanc was one of only three South African wines among the rankings of the wine world's best values. More than 16,000 wines were reviewed by Wine Enthusiast tasting panelists over the last year. The selections were based on the relationship between score and price, also factoring in availability and buzz. All of the wines on the "Top 100 Best Buys" list carry a suggested retail prices of $15 or less.
