

KANONKOPKANONKOPKANONKOP

Pinotage 2005

For decades, Kanonkop – South Africa’s equivalent of a “First Growth” – has set the standard for the notoriously fickle Pinotage grape, a cross between Pinot Noir and Cinsault. The estate’s age-worthy, benchmark bottlings are alluringly complex and distinctive, boasting juicy layers of dark berries, ripe banana and cassis intertwined with smoky, minerally undercurrents. A true Cape Classic!

www.capeclassics.com

Pinotage 2005

For decades, Kanonkop – South Africa’s equivalent of a “First Growth” – has set the standard for the notoriously fickle Pinotage grape, a cross between Pinot Noir and Cinsault. The estate’s age-worthy, benchmark bottlings are alluringly complex and distinctive, boasting juicy layers of dark berries, ripe banana and cassis intertwined with smoky, minerally undercurrents. A true Cape Classic!

www.capeclassics.com

Pinotage 2005

For decades, Kanonkop – South Africa’s equivalent of a “First Growth” – has set the standard for the notoriously fickle Pinotage grape, a cross between Pinot Noir and Cinsault. The estate’s age-worthy, benchmark bottlings are alluringly complex and distinctive, boasting juicy layers of dark berries, ripe banana and cassis intertwined with smoky, minerally undercurrents. A true Cape Classic!

www.capeclassics.com

KANONKOPKANONKOPKANONKOP

Pinotage 2005

For decades, Kanonkop – South Africa’s equivalent of a “First Growth” – has set the standard for the notoriously fickle Pinotage grape, a cross between Pinot Noir and Cinsault. The estate’s age-worthy, benchmark bottlings are alluringly complex and distinctive, boasting juicy layers of dark berries, ripe banana and cassis intertwined with smoky, minerally undercurrents. A true Cape Classic!

www.capeclassics.com

Pinotage 2005

For decades, Kanonkop – South Africa’s equivalent of a “First Growth” – has set the standard for the notoriously fickle Pinotage grape, a cross between Pinot Noir and Cinsault. The estate’s age-worthy, benchmark bottlings are alluringly complex and distinctive, boasting juicy layers of dark berries, ripe banana and cassis intertwined with smoky, minerally undercurrents. A true Cape Classic!

www.capeclassics.com

Pinotage 2005

For decades, Kanonkop – South Africa’s equivalent of a “First Growth” – has set the standard for the notoriously fickle Pinotage grape, a cross between Pinot Noir and Cinsault. The estate’s age-worthy, benchmark bottlings are alluringly complex and distinctive, boasting juicy layers of dark berries, ripe banana and cassis intertwined with smoky, minerally undercurrents. A true Cape Classic!

www.capeclassics.com